Beach and several chivalrous men. The incident occurred this morning at Hales, a small village where the Horn of Astarte, who are strongly opposed to Masons and Catholics, have their colony.

MORRIS READY FOR POLITICAL CONTEST

Will Run in Matters Adjust Themselves to Suit Him.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
La Crosse, Wis., Aug. 25.—Senator Thomas Morris, who has been mentioned as a candidate for governor, denies emphatically that Senator Owen of Madison has any authority to tell any of the McGovern men in Milwaukee that he was favored by the La Follette organization and that he will run no matter what McGovern did do. # RUNAWAY REPORT IS DENIED BY PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin State That They Did Not Ask the Police to Look for Their Daughter.

Through an item in a Holst paper, which stated that Chief of Police Quallman had been asked to look for Miss Mabel Griffin of this city, who it was said had left home, statements were made in last night's issue which further investigation has made it necessary to correct. According to Miss Griffin's parents, who were asked today in regard to the episode, their daughter did not leave Janesville at all, but simply purchased a ticket to Chicago for the purpose of visiting relatives. When her parents learned of her intended visit, they objected, and the trip was abandoned. Since that time Miss Griffin has not left the city but has been working steadily at the Western shoe factory. Mr. Griffin said further that the rumor that his daughter had left town was circulated by one of her enemies and that the matter would not be allowed to rest but that the offender would be brought to account for what he termed an "outrageous lie."

NEW CHIEF OF POLICE OF CHICAGO, LEROY T. STEWARD

Chicago.—The selection of Col. Leroy T. Steward to succeed Chief of Police Shippy as head of the police department came as a considerable surprise to many after the long-delayed appointment was made. Mayor Russell's selection meets the general approval of those acquainted with Colonel Steward and his methods. As an old army officer he has become a strict disciplinarian and it is thought this will be of great advantage to the police department. Regarding many of the pertinent questions with which he will have to deal, Colonel Steward talked freely while many others he skillfully sidestepped. As regards the segregation of vice, which is an important factor in Chicago's social welfare, he let it be generally known, although no exact statements were made, that he did not intend to scatter vice to the four winds. If the general sentiment is against the enforcement of certain laws he does not intend to enforce them. Regarding gambling Colonel Steward intimated there was a vast difference between a quiet policy game in the club or private place and the open gambling game. The latter he intends to prohibit with an iron hand.

AD MEN GATHER IN LOUISVILLE TODAY

Representatives of Association Advertising Clubs Met Today in Fifth Yearly Convention.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 25.—The fifth annual convention of the association of Advertising clubs of America, which began its sessions in Louisville today, is the largest in point of attendance ever held by that organization. Advertisers, advertising agents, newspaper and magazine advertising managers and advertisement writers are here from nearly every large city of the United States and Canada. All the United States and Canadian household merchants and manufacturers are on hand to tell their fortunes through the medium of advertising. The local club of advertisers has prepared splendid entertainment for the visitors, who will remain in the city three days. A monster barbecue at the state fair grounds is one of the chief features of the entertainment program. Much interest centers in the election of a new president. Last year at the Kansas City convention O. H. L. Wernicke of Grand Rapids, Mich., made a strong address which completely carried the convention with him, and since then there has been a strong movement in his favor for president. S. H. Quent of Cincinnati, former president of the national association, has expressed the opinion that Mr. Wernicke would appeal to an ideal man for the big job. The Grand Rapids delegation will undoubtedly come prepared to put up a fight for Mr. Wernicke. Other men thus far mentioned for the presidency have been William Thompson of Kalamazoo—the stove man—and S. C. Dobbs of Atlanta, Ga.—he sells Coca Cola. Grand Rapids, Mich.—O. H. L. Wernicke of the Macey Furniture Co. of this city is being solicited by the local delegation to the Louisville convention of the Association of Advertising Clubs of America to allow his name to be pushed for president. Mr. Wernicke himself is inclined to balk. "I appreciate the honor intended," said he yesterday. "But I also appreciate that to accept this presidency is to assume a heavy burden of responsibility and a large appropriation of work. I cannot bring myself to feel that I ought to be laced in such a position. I have the matter under advisement, but at the present time my inclinations are negative."

MEN OF SCIENCE MEET IN CANADA

ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH SCIENTISTS MEETING IN WINNIPEG.

MANY DISTINGUISHED MEN

Are Among the Visitors To the City and They Will Deliver Principal Addresses Of the Sessions.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 25.—Winnipeg has thrown her gates wide open in welcome to the thousand or more scientists of international fame who have gathered here to take part in the seventy-ninth annual meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science. The several sections of the association met today to organize and later there was a meeting of the general committee to complete the final details of the six days' program. Tonight the formal opening of the convention takes place in the Walker Theatre. The Mayor of Winnipeg will deliver the principal address of welcome. Professor Sir J. J. Thomson will announce the program in succession to Francis Darwin, and deliver his inaugural address. The new president is director of the Cavendish laboratory at Cambridge University, and has been professor of experimental physics there since 1884. He has published a treatise on the motion of vortex rings, but is best known as being largely responsible for the modern splitting up of the atom into smaller corpuscles. He is famous not only for his own work but for that of numerous research students from all over the world who have received their training in his laboratory. This is the third meeting held by the association in Canada. The first was held in Montreal twenty-five years ago, and the second in Toronto in 1897. It is considered improbable that the present meeting will bring forth any such surprises as some of the previous sessions, as for instance, the announcement of the discovery of argon at the Oxford meeting in 1886, but there is abundant material in the papers announced to insure an interesting meeting. The following will be the presidents of the sections: Section I, mathematical and physical, Prof. J. R. Thomson, an authority on radium, who was at McGill University; Section II, chemistry, Prof. H. E. Armstrong, professor of chemistry at the city and guilds of London Central Institute; Section C, geology, Dr. A. Smith Woodward, keeper of the geological department of the British Museum; Section D, zoology, Dr. A. B. Shipley, lecturer on advanced morphology of the invertebrate in the university of Christ's College; Section E, geography, Sir Duncan A. Johnston, honorary secretary of the Royal Geographical Society; Section F, economics and statistics, Prof. S. J. Mancheston; Section G, engineering, Sir William H. White, former director of naval instruction and construction and controller of the royal navy; Section H, anthropology, Prof. J. L. Myers, of Christ church, Oxford; Section I, physiology, Prof. E. H. Starling, professor of physiology in University College, London; Section K, botany, Lieutenant Colonel D. Prain, director of the Royal Botanical Gardens at Kew; Section L, educational sciences, Rev. H. B. Gray, a former master at Westminster school, and a member of the Moseley Educational Commission.

In addition to the distinguished scientists who are officers of the association, the following well known scientific workers are to take part in the proceedings: Prof. E. H. Moore, University of Chicago; Prof. Herman L. Fritchell, Rochester University; Prof. A. S. Greenbaum, University of Leeds; Prof. Alex Johnson, McGill University; Prof. A. B. Macmillan, Toronto University; Prof. E. F. Nichols, Columbia University; Dr. Alfred Springers, University of Munich; James McKeown, McDonald College; E. P. Westworth, Minneapolis; Warren Upham, St. Paul; James Bonar, Ottawa; Prof. J. C. McLennan, Toronto; and Dr. L. S. Amery, London. Sir Joseph J. Thomson in his opening address will refer to the importance of original research as a means of education, the advantages and disadvantages as a training for work in science of the systems now in vogue in schools and colleges. He will deal with the light thrown by recent investigation on the nature of electricity, on the relation between matter and ether and the part played by ether in modern physics, and a discussion of some problems raised by the discovery of radium. At the conclusion of the sessions here the visiting British scientists will leave Winnipeg for a trip through western Canada, inspecting the mines, forests and other natural resources of that vast region. The trip will occupy two weeks, in the course of which time the scientists will visit Regina, Moose Jaw, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver, Victoria and other leading cities.

REPAIRS ALLOWABLE WITHIN FIRE LIMITS

Decision of Judge Fifield in City's Case Against Andrew Fink, Landlord of Ottoman House.

That the rebuilding of a wooden building within the fire limits of the city of Janesville does not constitute "a change in the structural parts" and is therefore not prohibited by such regulations as are at present included in the municipality's book of law, was the decision of Judge Fifield in the action of the City of Janesville vs. Andrew Fink this morning. Mr. Fink is owner of the Ottoman House on West Milwaukee street. On complaint of Fire Chief H. C. Klein, an action to recover a penalty from him for using shingles instead of fire-proof roofing in repairing the hotel structure was instituted by City Attorney H. L. Maxfield. Attorney M. O. Mount, for the defendant, made a motion to quash the proceedings, did not state a cause of action, and after listening to arguments pro and con, the court granted the motion and dismissed the case. Under this decision, if it is deemed expedient to place a limit on the continued existence of ancient buildings which are regarded as a menace to the business district, it will be necessary for the common council to pass a supplementary ordinance prohibiting any repairs where inflammable material is used.

THEATRE

Janesville theatregoers who miss the production of "Lo" as presented under the auspices of the Janesville lodge of Elks, by the Harry Askin company, are going to miss the best musical attraction that will play Janesville this fall or winter. From the opening chorus on the docks of New York harbor, with the United States man-of-war lying anchored in the distance and the vessel which is to carry the exploring expedition to Yucatan at the dock, it is a scene of life and movement. John Young as the Tammany politician in charge of which he calls his formal opening, the famous Chauder orchestra from the Davidson theatre, Milwaukee. The production goes to Milwaukee on Saturday to open the Davidson theatre's fall season and it is expected it will be the musical sensation of the season.

The sale of seats is now being held at the People's Drug Company and everything points to an exceptionally large house to greet the initial performance of this production. The musical numbers are all catchy, the plot is fascinating and with the clever people who take part it is sure to

BITS OF HUMOR

The Chinese Loan.

WHAT I can't understand," said one of the men on the rear platform of the car, "is that Chinese loan business. This country seems to be forcing China to accept a loan."

"It is all as plain as day," replied the conductor. "We induce China to take a loan from us."

"Yes," "She goes on and spends the money," "Naturally," "When the time comes for her to pay up who doesn't have the dough to pay with. What do we say to her? We say: 'John, you blasted heathen, pay up or turn Christian!'"

"I begin to see," "And then we add: 'John, your fellows over in the U. S. are asking too much for shirt-washing. Cut the price down one-third,'"

"And they have to cut, of course," "And then we say to him: 'John, your country is too blamed big. We'll take a slice of it to relieve you,'" "I see—I see,"

"And after a few years more we walk into his shop some day and present him with an American flag and tell him to whoop. He asks what's the matter, and we reply:

See! It's nonsense. Why, it beats the green goods business all to pieces and is twice as safe to work!"

RUSSIAN COUNTESS TO MARY RICH AMERICAN.

Paris—The engagement of Countess Cassini to Alec Mosey, a rich young American, has just been announced.

The countess is a picturesque Russian girl who is almost as well known in the United States as in her own country. When Miss Cassini was yet in her teens Count Cassini, whose adopted daughter she is, came to America as the ambassador and the countess, original and unique young lady who presided over the Russian embassy at Washington soon became the center of attraction at the capital. She was the pioneer woman motorist at Uncle Sam's court; inaugurated the fencing fad; drove the smartest traps and gave new life to society's private theatricals. Aside from the fads which she espoused one after another in quick succession and which caused her to be recognized as the foremost foe of monotony, Miss Cassini (who was elevated while in Washington to the rank of countess) was an object of intense interest to women because of her striking toilettes. Her gowns were invariably bizarre but in good taste and artistic, and she wore them with the air of a Parisian. Indeed Countess Cassini was much more a Parisian type than a Russian. American, has just been announced.

can interest in this human dynamo reached its climax when she became the special charm of Alce Roosevelt. When after the Russo-Japanese war Count Cassini was transferred from Washington to Madrid his picturesque ward accompanied him, but she did not find the atmosphere of the Spanish court congenial and migrated to the environment where she rightfully belongs—Paris. Here she has been studying under the best masters for several years with a view to appearing in grand opera. Her engagement to several different Americans has been rumored during the past year or two.

If You Buy An Automobile For 1910

Consider This Argument:

The New York to Seattle Race was won by a Ford Model "T" car taken from stock. This car won the hardest, longest race ever run, beating cars of from 45 to 60 h. p., selling for from $4,500 to $6,000. In this race from Ocean to Ocean, this Ford car established a new record for the trip, made the record in open competition, and not only arrived first in Seattle, thereby winning the Guggenheim Trophy, but was first at 27 out of a total of 30 checking stations.

The Same Car Went the Entire Trip, complied with all the rules and arrived in Seattle, after making the 4,100 miles in 20 days and 52 minutes, without having had to make a replacement of any of its parts. All parts bearing the marks of identification with which they were stamped at New York. The Shawmut entry arrived the following day, the Acme one week later, the foreign representative, Italy, gave up at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and the Stearns did not get out of New York State.

The Practicability of the Car for every conceivable road condition was thereby unqualifiedly proven. You can not go back on such facts as this race brought out. Do you want a boulevard car? The Model "T" Ford easily held its own on the macadamized roads of New York and Ohio. It ran from Buffalo to Cleveland, 196 miles, in 7 1/2 hours. Must your car run well on roads deep with mud? The Ford leaving Cleveland in the pouring, rain and at the same time as all other cars, traveled 125 miles in the mud and arrived in Toledo four hours ahead of its nearest competitor.

Do You Want a Car for the Hills? The winner crossed four mountain ranges, Catskill, Rocky, Blue and Cascade and had no difficulty making better time than its heavier competitors. It was preeminently superior in this mountainous country as well as in sand, and had there been sleeping arrangements on the car, as was the case with competitive cars, the Ford could have easily increased its lead one or more days.

Additional Reasons for Preferring Ford cars are presented in its maintenance figures. On average roads, the winning car made 22 to 25 miles on a gallon of gasoline. It arrived in Seattle with the original wind in both front tires while the rear tires were changed only because of wear caused by constant use of chains. Ford owners—there are now nearly 30,000, 10,000 of them having Model "T" cars—have shown by actual figures that the replacement and repair item is very small and as all parts are standardized and 1,500 dealers carry repairs, any part can be quickly obtained anywhere in the world and at a minimum price, for that is fixed by the Ford Motor Company and is based on the cost of the complete car.

Two Cars for the Price of One— or rather for less—for a touring car bought today or a tourabout or roadster can in less than an hour be converted into a coupe, landaulet or town car for cold weather service. Buy an open car now and when the season changes, buy a closed body. The expense is small, just the cost of the body (and for price list) and the labor as noted.

Annette "LO" The Girl with the HALL $20,000.00 Voice

the exploring expedition and the Countess Della Platta, who is going along just to start a racket, are the happy mediums of much amusing by-play and clever slang. O. Henry, past master of American slang of the refined type, has put into the mouth of the young snappy crisp phrases that delight the audience.

The story by Franklin Adams, the peer of the short-story writers of America, carries the audience along with the action in a most pleasing manner. In the music A. Baldwin Sloane has outdone anything he has before attempted and the staging and scenic effects by Mr. Temple are worthy of the great New York Hippodrome which he made famous by his work.

The company give a professional performance in Waukegan on Thursday evening and arrive in Janesville Friday at 12:10. Two big cars of scenery are necessary to carry the troubles and scenic effects and it will take six big loads to haul them from the depot to the theatre. There are seventy-five persons in the cast and it means that Janesville is to have an opera here on Friday with the same stage settings, the same chorus and same principals that the Chicago audiences will see and go wild over later in the season.

In order to add to the completeness of the performance Mr. Askin has engaged for the Janesville production, prove the most exceptional offering in a musical line in this city for many months to come.

One interesting bit of news relative to the employing of the chorus is shown by the following description of how they were hired.

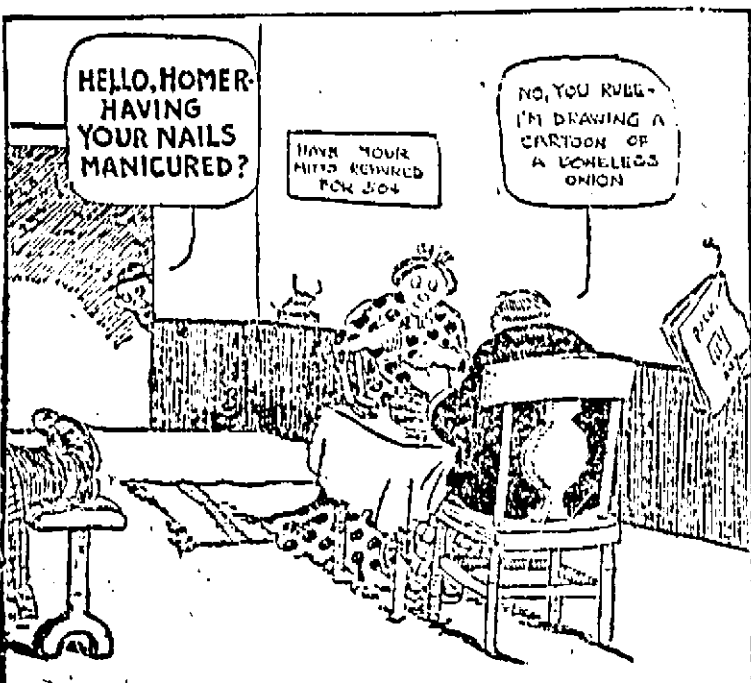

As each girl came forward to the table where Mr. Askin's representative, the stage manager, and the musical director were seated, the first thing she was asked to do was to smile and show her teeth, and no girl who didn't display two perfect rows of white, beautiful shining teeth was given another moment's consideration.

Ordinarily a girl's features, next her voice, next her dancing ability, and lastly her past experience, are the four important points to be considered when she is applying for a position in a chorus. But the girls for "Lo" were selected from a different idea.

Beautiful teeth was the first consideration, next their good looks, next their voice, and then their apparent intelligence.

"I don't care where a girl has had experience or not," said Mr. Askin in discussing this matter. "In fact, I would much prefer she hadn't. If she has ambition and intelligence; for under Louis Morton, my dancing expert, any girl of ordinary ability can quickly pick up the necessary dance steps, but no teacher in the world can give them freshness, youth and ambition.

THE LAW'S DELAYS

The machinery of the law is a slow-moving affair. It takes weeks and sometimes months to have an action brought in the courts and then other delays follow that often prolong that period. The counsel in authorizing the city attorney to take what steps were necessary for the improvement of the local street railway system left the matter in his hands. In order to begin a proper action necessary delay in the proceedings has been occasioned, but the over-anxious,

those who expected that by this time

the street car franchise or have established new cars and made their roadbed such that it was safe to ride over, must remember that the law's delays often last for months. It is safe to say that when the time comes the question of the company's either being compelled to renovate their entire system or lose their franchise will be pushed to the limit and the result will be satisfactory.

STATE POLITICS

With Samuel Cook, urged by friends, ready to become a candidate for the republican nomination for Governor, the La Follette republicans

hovering between McFadden of Milwaukee and Senator Morris and Governor Davidson sitting tight and saying nothing but trusting that he will be able to run again, politicians

in Wisconsin are "becoming" all hot up.

While the campaign is still many months off, still the preliminary work is being done and the work of elimination of possible candidates is already under way. Unlike the old days, it is not the early bird that always gobbles up the political worm.

Often times the man who shows the most strength months before actual work begins is forgotten by the time the campaign is really on.

Wisconsin has long had the name of being a fighting political state. There are always plenty of men who seek honors and always many who are disappointed. Whether Cook, or Mc-Fadden, or Morris, or Davidson get the coveted nomination remains to be seen, but it promises to be a warm campaign to say the least and starting early enough to have the whole field change long before the actual fighting time comes.

GOOD CITY STREETS

It is getting pretty late this year to do much more than many slight repairs to the city streets of Janesville, but this important question is one that should not be lost sight of

in planning for the work for the coming year. It is a shame to neglect the streets the way they have been for the past few years and unless radical steps are taken this important asset of a city's wealth will be such that thousands of dollars will have to be spent to bring them into shape

where a few hundreds judiciously expended now would save much money in the end. It is up to the taxpayers to see their aldermen if their streets are not kept up as they should be,

insist that they do their duty and see that the ward funds are properly disbursed. Ignorance in the handling of these funds is no excuse to offer when mistakes happen and valuable material is thrown away instead of being used. It is the duty of the men holding the office of alderman to see that their respective wards have all that is coming to them and insist that they get their share. The wards of the really energetic aldermen always show the results of the work of their endeavors.

McKees Rock, Pennsylvania, is now suffering from the reaction after its bloody riots. The strikers have symbolized themselves outside the pale of placed by their actions and even the socialist orators who went to urge them to stand fast for their rights

now admit that the end has come.

Chief Steward of Chicago is going to win friends among the Chicago police by kindness. Better take a sharp stick and prod a few of the worst off the force and then hold them up as warning to the rest.

The big barrels and boxes of skins and bones of African animals sent from Roosevelt's hunting expedition

all over the startling jetties of T. R.

R. on them, showing that even if he is not President, T. R. is still a hunter.

President Taft is doing a light summer job of governing the country between golf games. Just a sort of by-play for him when he gets tired of hitting the gutta percha ball about the back lot.

It looks as though Taft would have to eat his way from Beverly to Washington by the number of bankruptcies

being planned for his pleasure on his

western trip.

Little old Spain think those Moors

had any such a war up their sleeves

as they are now handling out. It is worse than playing poker with a man with a marked deck.

Game wardens are diligently looking after the fishing in the Rock river even if the stream is supposed to be an open one the year round, but this does not mean the use of nets.

That alleged community of Beverly

to eat his way from Beverly to Washington by the number of bankruptcies

being planned for his pleasure on his

western trip.

One day America takes the plan and the next day France jumps to the front in this international aeroplane flying-machine contest at Rheims.

Harriman appears to be enjoying a horrific luxury in the shape of his illness.

Heart to Heart

Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

A LOVE STORY OF TODAY.

Hristow Draper, ex-society man, ex-

Harvard student, foreman in a cotton mill, has both qualities.

Draper is the son of Governor Draper of Massachusetts. The family is an old one and rich. The young man was sent to Harvard to prepare for the law.

Harring accidents—or romance—Hristow Draper would now be a member of a Boston law firm instead of a mill foreman on weekly wages.

While on a college student jaunt in Boston young Draper met Queeque Samford, a chorus girl. Dan Cupid threw his lasso about the twain. Draper proposed and was accepted. When he told his father he was going to marry

the actress the latter stormed and threatened.

"I'll disown you!" angrily thundered

the father. "Very well," said the boy of twenty with soul stuff in him. "I'll make a home for myself in the world and a name for Queeque."

He married Queeque and was delinquent. Leaving Boston, he went to Burlington, Vt., where he entered the big cotton mills. Every day he carried his dinner bucket to the mills, drawing his pay on Saturday night and taking the money home to the little cottage by the lake that he and Queeque had rented.

For more than a splinter at $7.50 per week.

By and by the mill bosses saw that Draper was made of good stuff, and he got a promotion, followed shortly

by another. There was no "pull."

Then came the baby into the little cottage—a pretty baby that looked like its mother.

Do you remember the saying in the old book, "A little child shall lead them?"

Well, when Grandpa Draper heard about the baby a sort of melting process began. And one day he and Grandma Draper got off the train at Burlington and drove in a fine carriage out to the little cottage.

Nobody but the Drapers knows just what happened to the cottage, but the governor and his wife stayed for dinner and then for two days and went away happy.

"Back to the law?" said young Draper

a few days after. "Not for me.

Nor society either. Queeque and the baby are good enough for me. Besides, as I started in the cotton business I think I'll stay in it."

Queeque Draper is a fine mother and housekeeper and thinks Draper is the finest and bravest husband.

Seminole Indians still live in the everglades, just as they were in the time of the chief Osceola, whose warriors massacred Gen. Canby. Those people have intermarried, some of them, with negroes. They are fishers and hunters.

MONKEYED WITH THE FIRE ALARM WIRES

Several Stray Taps Sent in from Box 414 Last Evening—Investigation Being Made.

An investigation is being made to discover the identity of the person who tampered with the "drop wires" leading to box No. 414 at the corner of Washington avenue and Chestnut streets. Someone either maliciously or thoughtlessly tampered with the wires and several stray taps were received at the West Side station. That there was no need to respond to the call was learned before the horses left the station. Otherwise they might have had a long run for nothing. If the person is discovered who committed the act prosecution against him will be started and it will undoubtedly go hard with him. At half-past three a still alarm was sent into the station to put out a blaze in a pile of rubbish back of the Thoburn block. The chemicals were used in extinguishing it and no damage was done.

CLUB DAY AT THE SINNISSIPPI LINKS

First Flight Yesterday for Lewis and King Trophies—Good Attendance at Supper and Hop.

In the first round of match play for the Lewis and King trophies at the golf links yesterday, Dr. F. D. Farnsworth with a handicap of 16 was defeated by Chester Morse; George Baumann, with a handicap of 6, defeated J. P. Baker; George King, with a handicap of 14, was defeated by Leo Brownell; Fred Schaller won from Harry Carter in an even match; Howard Banck won from Orin Ruthland in an even match; and Stanley Tollman, with a handicap of 4, won from H. S. McGinnis. Wilson Lane and Al Schaller and A. M. Valentine and Charles Gage will play off their matches later in the week. The second flight will take place next Tuesday.

There was a goodly attendance at the club supper last evening and about eighteen couples participated in the first of the third series of six dances which will close the social season at the Country Club. Carter & Menzies' Orchestra provided a program of dance numbers that was surprisingly excellent and the festivities were in progress until midnight. Charles Zimmerman of New Haven, Conn., was the only out-of-town guest.

All who have been present at the golf dances given upturn during the winter season will be invited to attend the Harvest Home festival and hop, Sept. 28, on the same terms as club members.

HOME, SWEET HOME PLAYED ON CHIMES

As Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Denison and Children Took Departure for New Haven This Morning.

While the chimes at the Congregational church were ringing out the melody of "Home, Sweet Home" this morning, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Denison loaded the many friends gathered at the depot farewell and boarded the 7:45 train for Chicago. They will spend two days with Mrs. Denison's brother in Buffalo and proceed thence to New Haven, Conn., where Mr. Denison is to preach his first sermon on the second Sunday in September. The song of the bells expressed the lingering hope of their townspeople that they will one day return to dwell in Janesville. The committee which is to choose Mr. Denison's successor is still far afield. It is expected that Dr. Deaton of Chicago, who has lectured here and who was recently elected president of Ripon College, will supply the pulpit during the month of September.

Unsollected Tribute.
"Aunt Lotty," said her little nephew from the city, "I saw a bearded lady in a dime museum once. She was a lanky, but you're the real thing."

Nero's Test.
The deadly gauge of Nero's drunkenness was a finely wrought intaglio ring. When he could not see the figures on it he knew he was drunk.

IT IS CREATING MUCH EXCITEMENT.

SCORES OF PEOPLE ARE PRAISING IT TO THE SKIES.

The following article recently appeared in the Janesville, O., Signal: "The reporter has heard several of the leading doctors of our city say that Root Juice is certainly a great medicine as a number of their patients after using it a short while for chronic stomach, liver and kidney troubles were rapidly improving. One broad-minded doctor was heard to say in the presence of a number of people that he proposed to give it to his daughter if she should have trouble from a short use of it is simply astonishing. The remedy is doing so much good here in Janesville that it is the common talk of the city. People from every walk of life are praising it, and as a consequence the demand for the Juice is so great that it is hard to keep it in stock. The extraordinary merits of Root Juice have been proved by the experience of home people whose word can not be doubted. Those who have investigated have found every statement made in this paper in relation to the remedy as true as gospel. Scores of people are calling at the drug stores daily and asking for the great remedy to the skies for the wonderful good it is doing for themselves, or some member of the family. Mr. F. Monroe, who is well known here, said he has spent over four hundred dollars for medicine and treatment for his stomach trouble of long standing without benefit until he started to take Root Juice, but that one bottle made such a change in his condition for the better that even his friends were not believing. I am now able to get around and attend to my work without a particle of sickness or pain, and my liver no longer complains; the for me." The Root Juice people have hundreds of testimonials from well known people all over the state. The remedy is beginning to create much talk here in Janesville as several that have been using it a few days are praising it very highly.

Crowds are going to the Reliable Drug Co. to learn of the great discovery.

CHARLES HEDDLES SUMMONED BY DEATH

Passed Away This Morning After Having Made a Brave Fight for Life.

Shortly before nine o'clock this morning the angel of death called Charles T. Heddles to the great beyond after a week of intense suffering from dysentery, during which time all that medical science could accomplish was done for him. The end came quietly and at his bedside were his father, Stuart B. Heddles, his mother, and sister, Miss Gladys Heddles.

Charles Heddles was born on August 4th, 1887. When but a child he met with an accident in which he lost both his legs. He attended the high school here and later went to Chicago, graduating from the Chicago Commercial college. For several years he has been associated with his father in the tobacco business and the management of his farm, located in the western portion of the city.

A lover of nature and animals, Mr. Heddles had owned and driven many fine horses. He delighted in outdoor life and spent much of his time on his farm. He had many warm friends and was considered one of the rising young business men of the city.

He has always made his home with his parents and died at their residence, 129 North Jackson street. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed and announcement of the day and hour, will be given later. In their bereavement the parents and sister have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends who knew and appreciated the worth of the deceased.

JOHN H. FARRELL SECRETARY NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL LEAGUES.

Who is the busiest man in baseball? Without any doubt it is John H. Farrell, secretary of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues. Of this branch of baseball management much less is heard than of the duties of the National commission, the governing board of the sport, but fans who are wont to look upon the minor leagues as the great part of baseball are greatly in the wrong.

The number of men engaged in minor league baseball of course far outclass the number in the big league, and from a monetary standpoint the minor organization far exceed the big boys, and it is John H. Farrell who has to keep this entire minor league organization in line, for the secretary of the National association is the working power.

Mr. Farrell is also chairman of the National board of arbitration. Last year he gathered evidence and wrote decisions in 487 disputes. These decisions carried many thousands of dollars. Mr. Farrell has jurisdiction over more than 6,500 players. Each week there is a bulletin issued from Farrell's office. It contains the names of all minor players released, purchased, signed terms accepted, reinstated, drafted and suspended, and when it is considered the minor leagues change births with frequency some idea of the magnitude of this work can be gained. A collection of these bulletins would soon form a good sized library. They vary from small sheets three feet wide and two feet long in the spring months, containing column after column of names of players who have changed locations or taken some step from Maine to California.

If Farrell had no more work than the president of a major league he would feel lonesome, for in addition to all this detail work as to the release, purchase and other movements of players, he is called to settle many differences over salary and contracts between players and club owners. The secretary's office is the grand clearing house that catches in players just as bank clearing houses look after checks. Without it organized minor league baseball would be a joke. Every contract between players and owners is forwarded to the secretary for approval and record so that they can be referred to instantly.

In addition to the duties of his national position John H. Farrell is also president of one of the best minor leagues in the country, the New York State. But so well has he systematized the work that few mix-ups occur in the national association.

READ GAZETTE WANT ADS

When Creepy, Chilly Weather Comes, You Want Heat, Immediately, Economically, Without Trouble

not in one room or in two rooms but in every room in the house. You will not be satisfied with that old-fashioned hot-air heater which gives a tropical atmosphere on the first floor and an arctic temperature on the second, or in the hallways.

The comfort of home means no cold rooms on the weather side; no gaseous odors.

The Capitol Boiler gives warmth where you want it and when you want it and it will soon pay for itself in the saving of coal alone.

Let the wind blow as it will—you don't have to keep piling on coal hour after hour. A full fire pot in the Capitol Boiler holds eight hours' fuel supply for the most extreme weather.

CAPITOL BOILERS are being used in Janesville and not a single one fails to give utmost satisfaction. Read these letters and judge for yourself:

Mr. Chas. E. Snyder,
Janesville, Wis.
Dear Sir: When I purchased the Capitol Sectional 75-83 boiler of you, I was quite incredulous, but after trying found it did the business, heating the house perfectly, and cheerfully recommend it a comfort in a home or place of business.
Yours truly,
J. C. WRIGHT.

Mr. Chas. E. Snyder,
Janesville, Wis.
Dear Sir: It affords me much pleasure to say that the service we have received out of our Hot Water heating plant you installed for me two years ago in my residence has proven entirely satisfactory. I have a No. 818 Capitol Sectional Water boiler, warming 627 feet of Capitol water radiation, Florence design. I can cheerfully recommend Mr. Snyder to anybody in search of a steam or hot water plant.
Yours very truly,
P. H. DEHLHAARZ.

Janesville, Wis., 6-24-09.
Mr. Chas. E. Snyder,
Janesville, Wis.
In regard to the heating plant installed by you, consisting of Capitol Solar Boiler No. 323, in warming 628 feet of Capitol water radiation, I will say same has proved very satisfactory. Have used same nearly two seasons and can heartily recommend above to anyone in need of a strictly first-class heating plant.
Yours,
R. H. BARLOW.

Janesville, Wis., June 23, '09.
Mr. Chas. Snyder,
City.
Dear Sir: We are glad to say that the heating system which you installed in this bank and in the offices above, two years ago, has proven very satisfactory to date. One boiler, we believe, is a Capitol Sectional No. 825 W, and underneath it is warming 1500 feet of Capitol Water radiation, Florence design.
Yours truly,
S. M. SMITH.

Janesville, Wis., 6-24-09.
Mr. Chas. E. Snyder,

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that the heating plant which Chas. E. Snyder installed in my residence is very satisfactory. He also fulfilled his contract to the letter in the plumbing, with which we are all so highly pleased.
Very respectfully,
T. W. NUZUM, M. D.

Janesville, Wis., 6-24-09.
Mr. Chas. E. Snyder,
City.
Dear Sir: The Capitol Heater which we bought of you two years ago has met our expectations in every respect. We have a hot water plant which you installed has kept the house very comfortable during the winter months. Last winter we only burned eight tons of coal, and we herewith thank you for the splendid service you rendered by installing this heating plant.
Very truly,

Mr. Chas. E. Snyder,

Dear Sir: In regard to the heating plant which you installed in my warehouse last winter, would state that the same is giving very good satisfaction.
Yours very truly,
P. S. BAINES.

Janesville, Wis., 6-25-09.
Mr. Chas. E. Snyder,
Janesville, Wis.
Dear Sir: The Capitol Sectional Steam Boiler and radiation you installed in our flats some five or six years ago has proven exceedingly satisfactory as we have had no trouble whatever in heating our flats in the coldest winter weather. I consider the building a very hard one to heat as the boiler is in the basement, and the radiation heating the two flats are up over stores and quite a ways from the boiler and exposed on all sides. But as I have just said the No. 718 Capitol has done the work perfectly satisfactory, heating 538 feet of radiation.
Yours respectfully,
W. J. Skelly & T. L. Wilbur.

Making Money On the Farm

X.—Poultry Houses and Equipment

By G. V. GREGORY.
Author of "Home Course in Modern Agriculture"
Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association

FOR the money invested and work applied, poultry is one of the most profitable side lines on the farm. Indeed, many farms are run at a profit with poultry alone. If poultry is profitable on a place where all the feed must be bought it should be doubly so on the general farm, where much of its feed is made up of waste products. Too often the work of caring for the poultry is left to the women and children. Much of it is light work that they can do all right, but the man of the place should not consider it beneath his dignity to lend a helping hand when it is needed.

If poultry is to be kept at a profit some kind of shelter other than the machine shed, the apple trees or the cow stable will have to be provided. A good, warm poultry house is absolutely necessary if winter eggs are to be secured. At 30 to 50 cents a dozen winter eggs will soon pay the cost of building a house of this kind, to say nothing of the superior health of the flock.

The theory that poultry does best when left to its own resources is about exploded in enlightened communities. It has been demonstrated over and over again that no form of domestic creature kept for profit responds more readily to good treatment than this same barnyard fowl. That it has always more than paid its way even when neglected shamefully is but an indication of what it would do under better treatment.

Locating the Poultry House.
The poultry house should be located near the other buildings. The chickens will go to the barnyard to scratch anyway, and if the poultry house is too far away they will roost in the barn and shade rather than return to it. The poultry house should not be too far from the dwelling either, in order that it may not be too inconvenient to care for the poultry. The ground where it is placed should be fairly high and naturally well drained. A damp poultry house fosters all sorts of diseases.

The size of the poultry house depends upon the number of fowls kept. It is estimated that about five square feet of floor space should be allowed per fowl. If they can be out of doors most of the time they can get along with considerably less. The best kind of house to build is the scratching shed type, built with a shed roof. The high side should be to the south. About half of this house should be partitioned off for a scratching shed. The south side of this shed part is to be left open, covered only with wire netting to keep the fowls in. If the back and sides of this room are tight and the bottom boarded up a foot or two there will be little draft and the fowls will be comfortable even in the coldest weather. The floor of this shed part may be of dirt and should be kept covered with several inches of straw.

The remainder of the house should have a floor, preferably of cement. A cement floor is easily kept clean and is little more expensive than a wooden one. The chief advantage is that it keeps out rats and other vermin better than any other kind of floor. Neither does it furnish any crevices in which lice and mites can hide. These pests are the worst enemies to poultry culture, and care should be taken in building a house to leave as few cracks where they can hide as possible.

Value of a Curtain Front.
There should be several windows in the south side of the house to supply light. Light is one of the best disinfectants. It does much to keep the fowls free from disease and happy and contented. To provide for ventilation there is nothing equal to the "curtain front." This is a large square of muslin fitted into a frame the same as a window. This allows a gradual admission of fresh air without drafts. The exchange of air takes place slowly enough, so that it does not lower the temperature of the house too much. Considerable light comes through the curtains also, and less heat escapes through it at night than through glass windows. The curtain has the further advantage of being cheap. No poultry house should be put up without one.

Whether built of lumber or of some other material, the poultry house should be tight. Deep walking is good material for the side walls. A single wall is the cheapest and answers the purpose very well. It costs only a little extra, however, to lath and plaster the inside, and such a house is more

THE GREAT CONTEST NOW WELL UPON ITS SEVENTH WEEK

Prizes Will Go to Girls Who Work—and that's Where They Should Go—Competition Grows Apace and Prizes Prove Tempting—
10 More Days—Regulation Limiting Number of Years.

The coupon contained in this evening's issue of The Gazette is the last coupon which will be printed, and in order that subscribers and contestants may receive the full number of votes to which they are entitled by reason of the coupons, this evening's coupon has a value of 100 votes. The coupon is designed to cover each of the ten coupons which would be contained in the papers during the remaining days of the contest.

It will not be good after Monday morning, August 30th, at 9 o'clock.

No Long Period Subscriptions Sold. The motto of our contest is "Fairness to all" and with this thought in view the management has decided to NOT accept a subscription for a longer term than two years IN ADVANCE for by no doing it will make it impossible for any contestant to come to the fore at the last moment and purchase a single subscription for an extended length of time which would not be an enormous sum of votes and in some cases probably deprive deserving contestants of the rewards which otherwise would have been justly theirs. If any of the contestants have been KESTING with the idea that they would come in the last day and take out a number of these subscriptions and thus win a prize, they will now know this is impossible and if they hope to win they will realize it is not to be done through any way but honest effort.

The great contest is now well upon its seventh week. Just ten more days remain. Not a very long time, in itself, plenty long enough for you to pile up a reserve that will win you one of these elegant prizes.

The voting is becoming more spirited each day and all realize the fact that they will need every possible vote on Sept. 4.

Now is the time to gather in the subscriptions and increase your reserve.

The contest is the theme of conversation in thousands of homes in Janesville and the surrounding territory. This is due to the fact that the young women who are vitally interested in it have done so well up to date and have punched their names to their many friends. The Gazette itself has done what it has considered right in the matter and will continue to do so. "Impartiality" will be the motto, and those interested may rest assured the fine Newman pianos, diamond rings, scholarships and the watches offered will go to the young women who rightfully win them and who through popularity and dint of effort are so justly entitled to them. The field is filled with bright young women in whom the public is very much interested, and The Gazette feels that a popular chord has been struck in inaugurating a contest of this kind and carrying it on so successfully and impartially.

Pitch right in with a firm determination to win out or give the one who does win the contest of her life. Nothing is over gained by lying back and letting some one else pick up the prizes of life. Nothing like this offer will ever be given in Janesville again very probably, and the opportunity of winning such prizes should be grasped immediately and striven for earnestly.

Large Vote Cast.

The changes shown in the standing of candidates approach such a beautiful level of great advance that it looks as though the contestants had held a mass meeting and concluded by resolution that the thing to do is to vote everything they have. And they certainly have been voting some the last few days. This is true of all districts.

About Second Payments. One point that the management feels should be made clear to all contestants is the manner of issuing votes upon second payment to The Gazette by one person, and contestants are requested to note carefully the following: When a person has paid for one yearly subscription to The Gazette during the contest and decided to subscribe for another year, the votes issued upon the payment of the second subscription will amount to the difference between the number of votes given at the time of the first payment, and the total amount, which would have been given had the subscriber turned in the two-year subscription under the present scale of votes.

For instance: If a man subscribed for The Gazette for one year, delivered by mail, before the present doubled scale of votes had been put into effect, votes would have been issued upon the payment of that subscription to the amount of 7,000. Should he decide to take out another year's subscription at this time votes would be issued to the amount of the difference between the 7,000 to which he was entitled upon the first payment and the amount to which he would be entitled by the payment of a two-year's subscription at this time—34,000—or 27,000 votes. The above, of course, refers to country subscribers. In the city, by the same process, the subscriber, upon paying the second subscription would be entitled to the difference between the original votes issued, which would be 14,000, and the total to which he would be entitled for a two-year payment at this time—60,000.

Contestants will do well at this time to induce subscribers, who have purchased a subscription for one year, earlier in the contest, to subscribe for a second year, thereby securing the same number of votes that would have been secured had they waited until the announcement of the doubled scale of votes.

Read This Carefully.

This contest started with the paper since the contest started will always be considered a new subscriber during the life of the contest, and votes given accordingly. If you start the paper now and pay something in advance and wish to pay more later during the contest, you will receive the same number of votes as a new subscriber. Future Orders. Don't give up getting a party as a subscriber, simply because he is already taking some other paper for which he has paid in advance. Take his subscription to The Gazette to begin at the expiration of the other paper, and when that time arrives, he will begin to receive The Gazette.

Open Evenings. For the benefit of those who cannot call during business hours, this office and contest department will be open every evening.

SURE TO ASK

The Kind of Coffee when Postum is Well-made.

"Three great coffee drinkers were my old school friend and her two daughters.

"They were always complaining and taking medicine. I determined to give them Postum. Instead of coffee, when they visited me, so without saying anything to them about it, I made a big pot of Postum the first morning, using four heaping tablespoons to the pint of water and let it boil twenty minutes, stirring down occasionally.

"Before the meal was half over, each one passed up her cup to be refilled, remarking how fine the coffee was. The mother asked for a third cup and inquired as to the brand of coffee I used. I didn't answer her question until then, for I had heard her say a while before that coffee didn't do Postum unless it was more than half old-fashioned coffee.

"After breakfast I told her that the coffee she liked so well at breakfast was pure Postum and the reason she liked it was because it was properly made, that is, it was boiled long enough to bring out the flavor.

"I have brought up from a nervous, wretched invalid, to a fine condition of physical health by leaving off coffee and using Postum.

"I am doing all I can to help the world out of coffee slavery to Postum freedom, and have earned the gratitude of many, many friends." Read "The Road to Wellville" in pages.

"There's a Reason."

"Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

PERRING AND WARHOP DUE

Stars Will Be Among Those to Play in "Winter League."

Jack Warhop and George Perring will be in Beloit on Sunday, October 2, for the first big game of the "Winter League" series to be pulled off at Yost park. The Sunday games will be started at the park within a few weeks but some of the stars including Perring and Warhop will not report until that date. "Smiley" Smith of Madison has been signed to do the catching.

Strong teams made up of league stars representing Rockford and Janesville will appear against Beloit in the games at Yost park.

Cumulative Dangers.

"When you have made a statement for which you are sorry, you should own up to it," said the idealist. "No," answered Senator Sorghum; "it is bad enough to say anything you regret without following it up with an expression of self-distrust you are sure to regret still more."

WELCOME THE BIG CHURCH MEETING

MILTON PREPARED TO RECEIVE DELEGATES OF SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST CHURCH.

OVER THOUSAND VISITORS

Small City Within the City Has Sprung Up—Conference Will Be Biggest and Best Ever Held.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Milton, Aug. 25.—A small city of tents has arisen on college campus for the accommodation of the Seventh-day Baptist General conference, which began its sessions today. Our citizens, without regard to creed, extend a hearty welcome to the visitors, who come from various localities in states ranging from the Atlantic to the Pacific oceans and from Manitoba in the north to the Gulf of Mexico on the south. The auditorium tent seats twelve hundred and the dining tent five hundred. Adjoining it is the kitchen tent with a large traction engine furnishing steam for cooking purposes. Well furnished toilet rooms are provided in the college buildings in connection with the sanitary and the plant recently put in operation. An ample supply of pure water is drawn from the new well. The visitors will be furnished lodgings in private houses. Not less than one thousand will undoubtedly be in attendance daily. A choir of fifty voices, headed by an orchestra, will furnish music.

Last night the Milwaukee road ran their Chicago-Madison train, which ordinarily does not come here, to this station, and brought in about two hundred conference people, most of whom had been attending the preliminary convocation meeting at Wat. This accommodation, on the part of the railway officials, was appreciated.

No little time has been given to the preparation for the conference. Not only in the matter of commodities and accommodations, but in regard to the program as well, the ones in charge have put forth their best efforts. The program in all ways is to be successful, included in the list of speakers are talented eloquent men and women from the length and breadth of the land, and this, the ninety-seventh session of the Seventh-day Baptist church, promises to exceed in every way all other conferences held. Each day has been carefully planned for, so as to accomplish the work to be done in a most comprehensive manner and to secure the best good. The subjects chosen will cover practically all phases of the work the church is doing or plans to do.

For the opening day an especially fine program will be given, and this will be followed each day by a program equally as good. The program for tomorrow is as follows:

10:00 Devotional service.
Anthem: "Festival To Deum"—Dudley Buck.
Welcome—Pastor Lewis A. Platts.
Response—Rev. F. O. Burdick, President's Address: "A People of Greater Service"—Allen H. West.
